PETRUS RESOURCES LTD. ANNOUNCES CLOSING OF $50 MILLION PRIVATE PLACEMENT

CALGARY, ALBERTA, Monday, June 2, 2014 – Petrus Resources Ltd. ("Petrus" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has closed its previously announced private placement co-led by RBC Capital Markets Inc. and GMP Securities L.P, and including Peters & Co. Limited, CIBC World Markets Inc. and Acumen Capital Finance Partners Limited (collectively, the "Agents"). The Company issued 9,240,000 Common Shares (including an upsize of 1,540,000 Common Shares from the original offering) at $3.25 per Common Share for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $30 million (the "Brokered Offering").

Concurrent with the Brokered Offering, Petrus closed a non-brokered private placement offering to insiders and certain other investors of approximately 6,016,000 Common Shares (including an upsize of 1,538,500 Common Shares from the original offering) at an issue price of $3.25 per share and 115,000 common shares issued on a "flow-through" basis pursuant to the provisions of the Income Tax act (Canada) at an issue price of $3.90 per share, for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $20 million (the "Non-Brokered Offering" and together with the Brokered Offering, the "Offering").

Net proceeds from the Offering will initially be used to temporarily repay outstanding bank debt, leaving Petrus with approximately $85 million in available credit capacity to fund a portion of the Company's ongoing capital program and for general corporate purposes.

READER ADVISORIES

This press release contains forward-looking statements. More particularly, this press release contains statements concerning the use of proceeds from the Offering. The forward-looking statements contained in this document are based on certain key expectations and assumptions made by Petrus, including: (i) with respect to capital expenditures, generally, and at particular locations, the availability of adequate and secure sources of funding for Petrus' proposed capital expenditure program and the availability of appropriate opportunities to deploy capital; (ii) with respect to drilling plans, the availability of drilling rigs, expectations and assumptions concerning the success of future drilling and development activities and prevailing commodity prices; (iii) with respect to Petrus' ability to execute on its exploration and development program, the performance of Petrus' personnel, the availability of capital and prevailing commodity prices; and (iv) with respect to anticipated production, the ability to drill and operate wells on an economic basis, the performance of new and existing wells and accounting risks typically associated with oil and gas exploration and production; (v) oil and gas prices; (vi) currency exchange rates; (vii) royalty rates; (viii) operating costs; (ix) transportation costs; (x) the availability of opportunities to deploy capital effectively; and (xii) the satisfaction or waiver of all applicable conditions to closing, including the receipt of all necessary approvals of regulatory authorities, if any.

Although Petrus believes that the expectations and assumptions on which the forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on the forward-looking statements because Petrus can give no assurance that they will prove to be correct. Since forward-looking statements address future events and conditions, by their very nature they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those currently anticipated due to a number of factors and risks. These include, but are not limited to, the failure to obtain necessary regulatory approvals, risks associated with the oil and gas industry in general (e.g., operational risks in development, exploration and production; delays or changes in plans with respect to exploration or development projects or capital expenditures; the uncertainty of reserve estimates; the uncertainty of estimates and projections relating to production, costs and expenses; health, safety and environmental risks; commodity price and exchange rate fluctuations; and uncertainties resulting from potential delays or changes in plans with respect to exploration or development projects or capital expenditures). Readers are cautioned that the foregoing list is not exhaustive of all possible risks and uncertainties.

The forward-looking statements contained in this document are made as of the date hereof and Petrus undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements or information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
